“ Kathy I will always remember our last conversation at the family dinner last year. Sometimes as family we grow apart but it doesn't mean we don't care and I am just thankful I got to sit and talk with you and that I got to see you this last time at the family dinner and that we got to embrace and I was able to take your picture. It hurt to hear of your passing but I believe in the Bible's promise of a resurrection and I hold dear to my heart the hope of one day seeing you again right here under on a cleansed earth where sickness, suffering, pain, and death will be done away with. All of the things that caused us pain will not even be recalled to mind. Love you cousin and hold precious memories of you dear!
