“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort and solace in the promises from the Bible. John 5:28,29 is one of the promises that we hold dear in deep times of grief. It assures us: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." We hope this promise gives you much needed strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
