

Katie H. Brice

February 20, 1935 - January 30, 2020

Our Beloved Katie Mae Holmes Brice, was born on February 20, 1935, in Louisa, Virginia to the late Betty Green Moody. Katie was preceded in death by her loving and devoted husband, John Lewis Brice, Sr; daughter, Shelia Pryor; foster daughter, Alfreda Eppes; sister Queen Holmes and brothers Ernest, Arthur and George Holmes. Katie was called into eternal rest by Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and received her heavenly crown on Thursday, January 30, 2020.

Our Beloved Katie was educated in Louisa County Public Schools and graduated from Louisa Training High School. This is where she met and fell in love with the cute upper classmen, John Brice. One night at a school talent show, Katie was showcasing her lovely voice and caught John's eye. After the talent show, John and Katie shared a conversation as he walked her to the car. This began their love story. The two entered into holy matrimony on May 7, 1955. From their union, two sons and four daughters were born. Katie and John were married for over 56 years at the time of John's death.

Our Beloved Katie accepted Christ at an early age. Katie was baptized and a long standing member at Thessalonia Baptist Church in Louisa, Virginia. There at Thessalonia, she sang in the choir. Katie had a very melodious voice. Katie often took her grandchildren with her to Thessalonia to worship on Sunday mornings and Homecoming. Katie was a strong and righteous woman who taught her children (birthed and otherwise), the values of honesty, perseverance and the importance of keeping a spiritual focus.

Our Beloved Katie established her daycare business rather early. She was just a young mother of two and began providing daycare services for the community in Louisa. Following the arrival of her third child, the family moved back to Richmond. There in Richmond's Church Hill, is where Katie's daycare business thrived. Katie has nurtured, loved and guided children from all over Richmond City and surrounding counties. Katie became the neighborhood mother and grandmother. Many in the community still love and admire Katie. Katie successfully operated her daycare for 47 years, when she became ill in 2006. Katie also had a passion for sewing. She was a talented seamstress, who assembled numerous articles of clothing for loved ones and her community.

Our Beloved katie leaves to cherish her loving memory, two sons, John Jr. and William, Sr. (Gwen); three daughters, Deborah Hatacher (Jerome, Sr.), Yolanda Brice West and Aljawana Atkins; 17 grandchildren, John, III, Tanya, Jermone, Jerome, Jr., LaKeisha, Taneisha, Jermeka, Donnell, Jr. (Kierra), William, Jr. (Tiara), Linnie, IV, Shannon, JaQuan, Alicia, Alexis, Alexander, Reginald and MOnica; 23 great-grandchildren, Quiondre`, QueJohna, Zareon, Tachalla, Sher'Niya, Jer'Niya, Ze'Rihana, Kayla, Carae, Kaiden, Laila, Taleah, Serentiy, London, Jerome, III, Kaiveon, Isaella, Tayona, Teagan, Kallie, Malakhi, Len and Jasmine; two brothers, William (Alethia) and James Holmes; four sisters in law, Dorothy Chandler, Flornetta Worden, Celia Meredith and Margaret Gary; three brothers in law, James (Shelia), William and Daniel (Cathy) Brice; loving and devoted best friend Mrs. C+Viola Newton Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
