

Katina K. Burris

October 27, 1972 - May 6, 2013

KATINA KATHERINE BURRIS was born on October 27, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland to Mason and Mary Burris.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Later in life, she began working at the main Enoch Pratt Library-downtown, from there many more, but her last job was at UMBC College until her “acute” illness.

In 2012, Katina accepted Christ as her Savior when she joined Supreme Harvest Refuge Temple.

Katina was known to all her family and friends as “Tina.” She was a fun loving person who enjoyed being around her children and family. Tina loved to barbeque and have dinner parties for her family and friends.

She leaves to mourn: her mother and father, Mary and Mason Burris; her six children, Keith Jr., Kara, Ryan, Brandon, Arielle and Kaione; her three aunts, Debora Miller, Eva Gwen and Frances Burris; two uncles, Jeffery Miller and Jesse Burris; two sisters, Tara Stewart and Trezline Burris; two brothers-in-law, Zachery Stewart and Austin Hatcher; four nieces, Macy, Stacey, Kiarra and Mia; four nephews, Gerald, Justin, Josh and Zachery Jr.; five great-nieces, Makayla, Maddison, Kacie, Aryonna and Mariah; and a host of wonderful cousins, including one special cousin, Gregory Burris; a special, devoted friend, Keith Lionel Wynn Sr., whom she loved to the end and other relatives and friends.

“ My condolence to the family. It times like these that we need comfort from the Bible. The Bible promises that our dear loved ones have the hope of the resurrection hear on earth in the near future we find this promise at (John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The resurrection is possible because God sent his Son to give his life for us. So it is an expression of Jehovah's love and undeserved kindness.—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
