“ I'm truly sorry to hear of your loss. Even though I didn't know your loved one personally, I do know what it feels like to lose a loved one in death. What has brought comfort and strength to me and my family are the promises found in God's word the Bible. One such promise is found at Daniel 12:2 which says "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up..." So, during this grievous time, take solace in the promise that your loved one is asleep awaiting the hope of a resurrection.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of a mother, daughter, sister and friend. Though a stranger, we all share the same pain that this enemy, death, brings with it. No doubt the void is too huge to measure and the pain can't be compared to any other pain. Our Heavenly Father and Creator, Jehovah knows our pain. He, too, lost someone in death; His son and best friend, Jesus. Death hurts because we were created in His image and the will to live forever was instilled in us. Though death exists and has for thousands of years, it is not normal for us to die. For that reason, He promises us at Isaiah 25:8, "He will swallow up death forever." At Isaiah 26:19, we have another promise. It says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!" Not only will we see our loved ones again but they won't have to die ever again. These promises are from, not man, but God.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
