

Kavin Cox

September 30, 1966 - September 18, 2023

Kavin Cox affectionately known as Moe, was born September 30, 1966 to the late Prentiss (Jabbo) Cox, and the late Minister Sylvia Williams (Clarence “Butch” Williams) in Baltimore, Maryland. He transitioned peacefully in the presence of family and friends on September 18, 2023.

Kavin accepted Christ and was baptized at the Garden of Prayer Baptist Church alongside his sister, Sylvia Hawkins.

Kavin attended Baltimore City Public Schools where he met his first love Melissa, and soon after gave birth to their daughter Cierra. He later received his GED, and over the years, with his strong leadership personality he would become the manager of several hospitality restaurant chains. Moe later would obtain his CDL Class A and go on to drive dump trucks, before finding his passion in driving roll offs. He would always brag about the ease of the workload of just rolling them off and picking up new ones. Driving was his thing as he would say “if you can truly drive, then you can drive anything.” He received several accolades in safety management and proficiency, becoming one of the top performing drivers.

Kavin married the late Tyronda Teal-Cox, in March 2002. Kavin was dedicated, funny, outgoing, and had an extreme influence in the proper order of getting things done (the Kavin way). In his spare time, he enjoyed his daughters (Cierra and Kori), watching boxing, comedies, and hanging out with family/friends. Kavin is the original girl dad before “girl dad” became a trend.

To cherish his memory, he leaves to mourn: his daughters, Cierra and Kori; his sisters, Sylvia, Brandi, Kim, and Gwen; sister-in-law, Dynia; brothers, Keith, and Cornell; brother-in-law, Jeff; 5 grandchildren, Jada, Brandon, Aurie, Harlem, and Onyx; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.
