

Kaye Elaine Bush-Gray

July 6, 1951 - September 9, 2009

We are gathered to honor and pray deepest respect to a loving mother, sister, aunt, dear cousin and a truly special friend. Kaye Bush-Gray departed this life on September 9, 2009. She was born to the late Edna Hewlett Bush and Clifford Bush on July 16, 1951, in Philadelphia, Pa. She was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System, graduating in the Academic Art Magnet Program from Overbrook High School in 1968. Kaye went on to attend Penn State University in College Park, Pa. While there, she joined the sisterhood of the Delta Sigma Theta National Society, Inc. and graduated with a BA in Art. Kaye relocated to Richmond, VA. where she held various positions in the Richmond Public School System, Bon Air Learning Center, and J. sergeant Reynolds Community College. Art was not only a gift of Kaye's, but it was a passion. She enjoyed making pottery. She was also the research historian and author of Hewlett Family Inc. Kaye nurtured her relationship with God at Faith Landmark Ministries. In 1992, Kaye and her former husband Reggie Gray were blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Kyra Starr. Starr was the light of Kaye's life. Kaye is survived by her daughter, Kyra Starr Gray, her step-brother, Dr. Clifton V. Lee, sister Cheryl Dickerson, nieces; Margaret (Candi) Lee-Lattisaw, Michelle Lee, Jeanne Lee, great-nephew, Blair Lattisaw, devoted first cousins, Thelma & John Hewlett, and Chuck Dabney, and devoted friends, Shelia Craigwell, Pamela Bennett, and Vanessa Harris, as well as a host of other friends and family.

Tribute Wall

“ Kaye Elaine Bush-Gray

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear Starr, Although I have never met you, knowing you are a part of Kaye instantly places a bond between us. She was a beautiful person whom I admired from the day I met her. I'll always remember her voice and artistic abilities. Know that you have a family of Delta women who are here for you whenever you need us. With deepest sympathy, Diane R. Satterthwaite PSU '75 DST'72###imported-begin###Diane Reddick-Satterthwaite###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Starr... I have known your Mother, Kaye since our elementary through high school years in Philadelphia. Someone so special as Kaye can never be forgotten. Sharing in your sorrow with love and friendship. You and your family have my very deepest sympathy, PEACE###imported-begin###Gail E. Samuels###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to convey my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time. (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Ms. Bush-Gray. To believe in a promise you would need to be certain that the one making the promise is both willing and able to fulfill it. Jehovah God has promised that the dead will live again. At John 5: 28, 29 He promises to do just that. Please take comfort in knowing you can see your loved one again, by exercising faith in that promise.##imported-begin##Marilynn Wright##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, It truly is unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we care for and love. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Starr and Family, Kaye was a talented artist. I admired her artistic gift as well as the way she raised you. She was a great mother and she will always look over you and live in your heart. Sorrowfully, Emilee PSU 74 EG72##imported-begin##Emilee J. Taylor##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I'll surely miss her laugh, but will remember the good times at PSU.##imported-begin##Judith Peters##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“Starr,, I'm very sorry for your lost. When times get hard, remember the love and time you and your Mom shared. Below are words,I hope will help you during good and hard times ...REMEMBER her love... "I am Always with You" I am always with you, even when you are not able to feel me in your heart. I love you always, I surround you with my protecting love, even when you occasionally forget me. I listen to your problems, if you are sincere and receptive, and I give you solutions. I hear your prayers and answer those that are in the best interest of everyone in your life including, but not limited to, you. I am the light and the thoughts in your mind, I am the sight in your eyes, I am the life in your body, I am the feelings you feel in your heart. I am always at work in your life for your greater good, although you may not always believe this; hopefully, your faith in me will grow constant. You must realize: "my will is whatever is happening in the present moment." Within this moment you must think and act with integrity, humility and courage, you must trust in me, and surrender your will to mine through acceptance. If you continue to demonstrate acceptance, integrity, humility, courage and trust, you will discover the secret of opening your heart to my love. The greater your faith in me the more I am able fill your heart with my love. It is I, who grants you the serenity to accept the things you cannot change, the courage to change the things you can and the wisdom to know the difference. Eventually you will realize the samplings of love I bestow on you through others are purposefully designed to draw you closer to me. It is only I, who loves you unconditionally, I am an ever-flowing fountain of love, peace and joy, I will never disappoint you, I will always be with you. I mete out to you the exact amount of pain you cause others, because I want you to be compassionate. I want you to be able to give love and equally as important, I want you to be able to receive love. How else will you learn to love me? How will you learn to accept my love? The moment you realize the error of your ways, The moment you sincerely regret the pain you cause others, I forgive you; I nourish you with my tender mercies. Remember, I never stop loving you for you are my precious child.##imported-begin##Beverly D. Millhouse-Satterthwaite##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Our prayers are with you, in the lost of your mom, we love her but he loves her more, and said come rest loving daughter, be comforted that you will see her again soon, and we are always here for you. Much love. mama Von, Justin-Mychal and Quiana##imported-begin##The Bellamy-White Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM