

Kayla Jasmine Myles

March 7, 1996 - June 27, 2003

Kayla Jasmine Myles was born on March 7, 1996 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the daughter of Natasha Brown and Keith Myles. Wise beyond her years, outspoken, humorous and full of life, her spunk, charm, and big toothless smile breathed life and energy to all she touched. Though young in years, her old soul was dedicated to her parents and siblings. A gift from Jehovah, she gave her mother power beyond what was normal, and brightened up her dad's face and heart. Kayla loved art, acting, singing, dancing, being a comedian and "looking good" from head to toe. She loved learning, and while receiving her formal education, it was known that she also loved to give a spiritual one to others. Kayla delighted in praising Jehovah. A little pioneer, she regularly accompanied her mom in the preaching work. In order to reach the Deaf community with the kingdom message, Kayla began learning American Sign Language, progressing to the point of signing comments at the meetings. Like a beautiful flower she flourished and grew, providing her beauty for the world around her. She will forever be implanted in our hearts. She leaves behind: Parents, Natasha Brown and Keith Myles; Stepmother Shantell Myles; Siblings, Kaziah Myles, Keyon Miles and Keith Myles II; Grandmother Stella Myles; Great-grandmother Mary Yates; Aunts and Uncles, David Brown, Deon and Raven Brown, Emanuel and Gloria Brown, Paul Brown, Michael and Antionnette Hartford, Edward Myles, Lawrence Myles, Anthony Sweeper, Rodney and Rhonda Taylor, Dondre White; and a host of cousins, spiritual aunts, uncles, siblings and self sacrificing loving friends.
