“ I sent my baby girl to Morgan State, a scared parent... Kayla saw me, my worry, & stepped right into assure me everything would be okay... Each & every time I saw Kayla, she greeted me w/ the biggest smile & hug, “Hey, Ma!” letting me know she’s been checking in, lol. I’ve missed her since she’s graduated & am heartbroken. Kayla was such a genuinely beautiful person. My sincere condolences to her family & friends.

“ To my fellow Cross Country Eagle. I am deeply saddened by your death. You were such an amazing and kind person Kayla. I will never forget our enthusiasm for math and how you and I were the only two females who competed in Math competitions in elementary/middle school. An intelligent and talented soul gone extremely way to soon. Although your time was cut short , you left a lasting impression. I pray that you are at peace. I will always cherish our memories and the times we shared. You will be missed dearly. Give our other eagles that we've lost, a hug for me. Until we meet again. My thoughts and prayers are with Kier and the entire Johnson family.
