“ Marty, I just wanted to let you know how sad I was to hear of your loss. I don't know if there is anything I can say to comfort you (And I understand), but remember that God loves you and Kayla. I believe that everything happens for a reason. Though it may not make sense now, you must believe that it is all a part of God's ultimate plan. Perhaps He believed that Kayla was too precious to be on this earth. Kayla will be missed. All of us at the Essex DSS share your sorrow. May God bless you and your family. With love,

“ What a beautiful child! My heart truly goes out to her mom, dad, family and friends. Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. But Jehovah God, through his son Jesus, gave us the hope of a resurrection. Not to the world as it is now, but a new world where there will be no more death, pain, sorrow or tears (Rev. 21:3,4). The former things will have passed away. Just imagine, mom and dad welcoming Kayla back during the earthly resurrection on an earth that has been totally restored the way Jehovah God originally intended! This hope has brought comfort to millions. I hope that it does for your family as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die and heart wrenching when a child is falls victim to death. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your precious little girl. She was truly a beautiful child, and I'm sure she brought much joy to your family. Death is such a painful tragedy for all of us, especially when one is so young. Many people feel that when this happens. God needed another angel. Now ask yourself, is that consistent with a God of love? 1st John 4:8. Why would he want to make a family suffer the pain of losing their baby? No, this was not God's purpose. The bible tells us the reasons why we die, but more importantly it tells us Jehovah's purpose to end death permanently in the near future according to bible prophecy. Notice what Rev.20:13 says, "And the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up those dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds." So the bible speaks of this resurrection that will shortly take place, so that no matter where or how a person died, God will remember him. John 5:28,29. Now notice Rev 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. So you can be with your little girl again. That's God's promise to those who love him. May those promises give you some comfort and hope at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the death of one we love and even more so when the one we love is so young. But know that our loving God has not abandoned you. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 he is rightly called, "the God of all comfort" and he will provide comfort for you and your family. You can receive this comfort by drawing close to him through a study of his word the Bible. There he tells us of the comfort he will provide now and in the future. Draw close to him and he will draw close to you. (James 4:8)###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family. It is so tragic and unfair when such a young, precious life is lost. But, it is not reasonable to conclude that our loving God (1 John 4:8) would cause such sorrow by taking the life of such a young person. Death can effect any of us, but God does not cause it. There is only one reason why death exists (Romans 5:12). But, God is going to right this wrong (Romans 5:19). Acts 24:15 tells us that we can "have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous". God is promising here that he will bring precious Kayla back to life. And not only that, he will eradicate death forever (Revelation 21:4). May you find some comfort in these words. And if you would like to know more about why death affects us and how God is going to get rid of it, please do not hesitate to email.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##
