

Kaylah Wade

September 18, 1999 - August 30, 2020

Our precious angel, Kaylah Ta'Shaun Wade was born Saturday, September 18, 1999 in Baltimore, Maryland to Christopher Wade Sr, and Shauna Morgan. On Sunday, August 30, 2020, the Lord called our earthy angel Kaylah home. "Princess Kay" or "Kay" as she was affectionately called by her family and friends received her education through Baltimore City Public School System. Kaylah attended Western High School, where she became a proud Western Dove, she later transferred to The Achievement Academy, where she graduated in 2018.

At an early age, Kaylah was baptized at Mt. Calvary Star Baptist Church, where she sang in the youth choir.

At times, Kaylah could be seen with a bright smile upon her face that was filled with joy. She had the biggest heart and she showed it by always greeting people with a hug and a Hi in her sweet, quite, soft spoken voice, Kaylah LOVED to be surrounded by her family and friends.

Starting at a young age, Kaylah showed a unique eye for fashion. She was very particular about her clothes, putting together outfits with a keen eye. Her creative mind would also lead her to show off many colorful hairstyles, just to ensure she pulled off the look she envisioned.

Kaylah was a driven and hardworking individual. She set goals & visions for herself, many of which she accomplished and she was able to see them manifest at a young age. Through pure determination, Kaylah taught herself how to design wigs and weaves, and with her best friend, they launched a business of their own, "K and K Units, selling wigs units.

Kaylah's zeal for life and gentle personality will be truly missed by everyone that encountered her.

“ My heart is troubled to hear about the passing of my beautiful little cousin Kayla. Having children close to Kayla's age really touched me and I can only imagine how painful it is to deal with the death of a child. Shauna, my beautiful cousin, you and CJ are in my prayers. The sting of death is one that seems to be inevitable. However, the God of the Bible gives us much comfort now and tremendous blessings in the near future, through His word. To the family who is reading this, I love you all as well and as always are in my thoughts and prayers. Look forward to seeing you soon when these restrictions are lifted. In the meantime, please stay safe.
