KEITH ALLEN CHANDLER, the youngest of three children, was born to James and the late Rose Chandler in Philadelphia, Pa. on July 14, 1959. He departed this life on May 26, 2006. Keith accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of St. Paul Tabernacle U.H.C.A. under the pastorate of the late Elder Josephine Simmons, and the present pastor Elder Robert Hyman. He loved "the word" and often quoted scripture. He also enjoyed playing gospel music on the guitar and keyboard. Keith was educated through the Philadelphia school district, graduating from Edward Bok Technical High School. Later attending Virginia Union University in Richmond, Va., where he became a proud member of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity. After college, Keith joined the U.S. Army, where he met and married his wife Marsha Hunt from Baltimore, Md. in the year 1981. Whenever in need people always called on Keith and he was always willing to help. He will truly be missed by anyone who has had the pleasure of meeting him. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy to your family on the passing of your loved one. Death is something we can never get used to, because it brings us so much pain knowing that we can't see or talk to our loved one again. Almighty God is aware of our sorrow, that is why he has purposed to put a permanent end to the scourge of sickness and death that touches the entire human family. Isaiah 25:8 says that he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. One day this horrible world with it's violenc, sickness, poverty, and death will be done away with, and God will create a new world of unending peace, and death will no longer hold dominion over us ever again. 2nd Peter 3:13 says, "But there are new heavens, and a new earth that we are awaiting, according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell." May your happy memories bring comfort to your heart, until you are reunited with your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ I will always and forever call you My Boo,keeping you close and near to my heart. I enjoyed the times we shared together. The times we laughed and you called me Boo-Boo, I will remember them always. Just as you would want me to. What I will remember the most is the way you held me and smiled at me without you saying it, I love you to me, I knew. So until we meet again, Rest in Peace My Boo.##imported-begin##Mia##imported-end##

“ To the family of Keith A. Chandler I am truly sorry for your loss. We truly have a "enemy death" who takes our love ones away from us so soon. (1Corinthians 15:25,26) Jesus Christ when on earth felt the grief other felt. Luke 7:12-16 talks about a widow that had a son who die(only-begotten son) Jesus caught sight of her, he was move with pity for her, and said to her,'Stop weeping.' With that he approached and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still, and he said. 'Young man, I say to you, Get up!' Notice how Jesus was moved with pity, so that he resurrected the widow's son! And Jesus Christ does feel the same way about those we lose in death today. At John 5:28,29 speaks of a resurrection. This resurrection will be right here on earth but in better condition not like what we see today. Isaiah 26:19 talks about what Jehovah God will do for the dead. These are beautiful promises we can look forward too. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##
