

Keith Bryan Brooks

August 18, 1958 - April 10, 2002

Keith Bryan Brooks was born on August 18, 1958 at Provident Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland to Mildred and Samuel Brooks, the second of twins. He departed this life and was called to his eternal rest on the evening of April 9, 2002, following a fatal seizure. Keith was educated in the Baltimore City schools and graduated from Glen Burnie High School in 1976. Keith was a master mechanic, master painter, skilled craftsman and avid motorcyclist. His friendly outgoing personality made him affectionately known and loved by all those he met and knew. Keith left a lasting impression on family and friends who knew him well. He earlier married the former Vanessa Richardson, and from this union was born a son, Kiorsini Brooks. He later met and married the former Sylvia Fletcher Price, and in this union Keith remained until his untimely death. Keith renewed his acceptance of Jesus as Lord and Savior shortly before his tragic death and dedicated himself to his faith. He leaves mourn: his wife, Sylvia Brooks; one beloved son, Kiorsini Brooks; a devoted mother, Mildred Brooks; four step-daughters, Rev. Nina Bazemore, Edith Parker, Mona Price and Joesetta Towles; one son-in-law, John Bazemore, two brothers, Khalil and Kurt Brooks; a sister, Kara Brooks-Tyson; four brothers-in-law, Keith, Kenneth, Roland Fletcher and Price Tyson; four sisters-in-law, Keith, Kenneth, Roland Fletcher and Price Tyson; four sisters-in-law, Queenette Brooks, Arlette, Lynette and Yvonne Fletcher; a loving father-in-law, Marion G. Fletcher; three nieces, Kenisha, Marcia and Michelle; three nephews, Kevin, Marcus and Samuel; step-grandchildren, Michael,

Keshawna, Brandon, Rachel, Andr'e, Dominick, Justin, Crystal and Danielle; a great niece, Kevey; and a host of other relatives and friends.
