

Keith Eules Hart

November 29, 1964 - May 31, 2003

KEITH E. HART, son of Junius L. Hart and Mable W. Hart, was born on November 29, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 31, 2003. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After his completion of school, he became employed at his former brother-in-law's tire shop. Keith went on to work at several other tire shops and later became part owner of a tire shop. He loved working with his hands, always trying to fix up something. Nothing was junk to him – he would always try to find a use of everything. He met and fell in love with a beautiful young lady, Addie Brooks. He and Addie joined together and had two beautiful daughters, Shantavia and Juanita Hart. Keith was no stranger – he was a friend to everyone he met. He would always have a conversation for anyone and everyone wherever he went. He would always find somebody he knew or somebody he would get to know. Keith had an array of life-long, devoted friends. He leaves to mourn: his father, Junius L. Hart; mother, Mable W. Hart; two daughters, Shantavia and Juanita Hart; two granddaughters, Yaimaya and Aunyan; two sisters, Juanita P. Chandler and Velda B. Bustion; two brothers-in-law, Tyrone J. Chandler and John H. Bustion; five uncles, five aunts, three nephews, six nieces, five great-nieces, eight great-nephews, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Just sitting here and finally getting a chance to read my uncle obituary years after his passing I wish I really gotten a chance to know him. Although it wasn't mentioned in his obituary he also has a brother Michael Hart that is my dad. May they both rest in eternal peace
