There is little anyone can do or say to ease your sorrow, but may it help you to know that the thoughts and prayers of the Union Bethel Church family are with you at this time of mourning. We pray that God will comfort you and send you strength today and in the days to come. May God bless your heart and give you peace.##imported-begin##Rev. Charles T. Sembly, Pastor##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest sympathy for the great loss of what sounds like to have been a terrific person. Even though I didn't have the privilege of knowing Mr. Flethcher, I know how deep the pain is of losing someone we love very much. I just want to share an encouraging scripture from Almighty God's word the Bible in hopes to help ease your pain. While we know that tomorrow isn't promised to us, knowing what hope is held out for us if we pass or for those who have passed can be very benefical. Our loving Heavenly Father, promises us at Isaiah 26:19, "Your loved ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." We see that we WILL see our loved ones again. They will be raised up and live again. Definitely a reason to cry out joyfully. At John 5:29,29 Jesus says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out..." Again, they will be brought from the memorial tombs and will live again. These two verses shows us the hope we have in seeing our loved ones again. We have evidence in the bible that resurrections occured. First, Almighty God resurrected His own son, Jesus on the third day after his death. Another is when Jesus resurrected his friend, Lazarus after he had been dead for four days. (Luke 11:43,44) I do hope that you have been able to draw comfort from these verses. Please compare them to your copy of the bible and see these wonderful truths firsthand.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
