“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ We were saddened to hear of the passing of your loved one. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time. May you find comfort and strength from the God of all comfort at 2 Corin. 1:3,4. I hope this message from the Bible comfort your heart and give you the strength to go on.##imported-begin##McNeil##imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences. Losing a loved one is truly heartbreaking, and so hard to come to terms with. It feels like an unreality to digest the fact that we can no longer see their dear faces any longer. Jehovah never desired this legacy of sorrow for us, because he is the God of love. 1st John 4:8. One day he promises that the dead will be raised back to life in happier conditions like it was in the Garden of Eden, and they will never have to die again. Jehovah will swallow up death forever, according to Isaiah 25,8; and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." He has given his son all authority to ressurect the dead according to John 5:26-29. May you find much strength and comfort from the bible, and may your cherished memories of Keith help you to cope.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Dear Hamilton Family, This as a message of condolence to the family. Rev 21:4 tells us death will be gone forever. John 5: 28=29 gives us the hope of a resurrection. Jehovah is the God that do not lie, and he promise he will deliver us. Please go to him in prayer, "Do not lean upon your own understanding" of death. The bible is where you will find comfort. Isaiah 25:8 " Death will be swallow up forever " this is a very comforting scripture. Plaese allow the bible to comfort you in these troublesome times.###imported-begin###Phyllis Duvall###imported-end###
