

Keith Jerome Williams

November 24, 1955 - August 23, 2013

Keith Jerome Williams, affectionately known as “Fish” was born on November 24, 1955 to the late Alfred and Edith Williams. He transitioned into eternal peace on August 23, 2013.

Keith was educated in the public schools of Richmond, Virginia graduating from John Marshall High School, where he participated in the sport of football. After graduation, Fish worked several years at National Linen Service, then went on to work for Richmond Public City School System until his illness.

He loved spending time with family and friends. You were sure to have a good laugh when he was around. No one was a stranger around Fish; he was determined to make everyone comfortable. He loved football and was an avid Washington Redskins fan. He will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts with memories of his warm smile.

To cherish fond memories of him, he leaves two sons, Lamont Clark and Keith Clark(Savannah);four grandchildren, Keith Clark,Jr.,Keasia and Keniya Clark and Qua`Janae Teasley;two brothers, William M. Studifin and Roger L. Williams(Stephanie);sister, Gloria J. Williams; one aunt, Helen S. Taylor(Fletcher); two uncles, Theodore Williams (Rae) and Ralph Williams(Bertha) a devoted friend, Kim Granderson and her family,Whittney, Frank and Arnardia;his estranged wife,Earlene Clark Williams and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ In this time of great sadness its good to know that the bible provides a happy message. Gods word the bible has good news for families that are grieving. At Acts 24:15 it says that there is going to be a resurrection of the of both the righteous and the unrighteous. That is good news to us because we can have the opportunity to be with our love ones again right here on the earth under better conditions. “ To the Williams Family, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Keith. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4), continue to sustain you during this difficult time. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that talks about a time when there will be no more sickness or death and when our loved ones will be restored to life in a paradise on earth. Until that time, continue to pray for strength and look to God's word for guidance and hope. With deepest sympathy, The Murphy Family

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your dear Mr. Williams. The death of a loved one can be painful, and so very difficult to comprehend. This is because Our Heavenly Father, never purposed this for mankind. As a Matter of fact, he hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all (1 Corinthians 15: 26 and Isaiah 28:5). Jesus speaks of an earthly resurrection. He says at John 5:28,29 , in part..... " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming, in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". You see, soon the earth will be restored to a paradise, just like in the beginning (Genesis 1:28). Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37: 9- 11, Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 33:24). This is not a fantasy. There are nine cases of persons' resurrection documented and recorded in The Bible for us to examine. Some of these are Mark 5:35-43, Luke 8:49-56, and Mark 9:23-26. May you draw much comfort in The Creators' wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, and wrap our arms around them once again. I hope knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow. Sincerely Mrs. D. Ward, Michigan More Bible-based comfort can be found on the website www.jw.org

“ Uncle Keith its hurts to see you go... I would never forget that day you acknowledge me and gave me a hug or that day you called and ask about that football game . But most important thing is you left here knowing I love you.... cause u shook your head and gave me another hug... Just promise me that you will keep the people in heaven laughing like you kept your family and friends. Also love them like you love us , show them that you can still live life as you are still here on earth.. Love you Unc....(tears).....
