

Kemper Lewis

May 13, 1923 - October 19, 2001

Kemper Lewis, the oldest of thirteen siblings of the late Joseph and Evelyn Gordon, was born on May 13, 1923 in Bladensboro, North Carolina. He departed this life on October 19, 2001. He grew up on the family's farm, learning farm work at an early age. He received his education in North Carolina. At the age of sixteen, he tied the mule to the tree and found his way to Baltimore in search of his mother. He raised his age and went to work at Glen L. Martin. He later joined the employment of Nick Angelozzi Construction company, where he remained for forty-five years. He retired a crew leader and boss of his own construction company. He married the late Vickie Banks, his wife of thirty-five years. In the later years he met and married Katherine Smith on June 28, 1995 whom he lovingly called Kate. Affectionately known for family members as Kemp, and Big Lew to friends and neighbors, he never met a stranger and made numerous friends. If you needed a dollar you could call on him. Anyone needing a ride or help-that was Kemper. He never stopped working, although retired. For thirty-five years he provided transportation to the shopping public of Giant's Menlo. He was a man among men. He leaves to mourn: his wife Katherine Lewis; stepdaughters, Tarsha Smith and Wanda Banks; three stepsons, Wayne Banks, Darnel and Rodney Smith; three granddaughters and five grandsons; five sisters, Hester Howell, Edith Gordon, Catherine Griffin, Lenora Knox, Delores Hobbs, all of Baltimore; seven brothers-in-law, six sisters-in-law; beloved cousin, Virginia Lennon; uncle Garland and aunt Cora Lee Lennon; a host of other relatives and friends. Lewis, although you are gone, You will be ever in my heart. Your Loving Wife
