

Kendall D. Atkinson

December 3, 1980 - March 5, 2003

Kendall Damon Atkinson was born on December 3, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland to Janet Cain and Quinzel Atkinson. He departed this life on March 5, 2003 at Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center. He received his education through the Baltimore City School System at Patterson High School; He was always a cheerful, vigorous person with a smile, loving all of nature's goodness. Kendall kept close to his family, loving all so dearly and they loving him dearly in return. Kendall loved to laugh and bring a smile to everyone he met. He enjoyed playing basketball and spending time at various places where he could socialize with his family and friends. No matter what challenge's life brought his way he faced them with strength and perversity. Kendall leaves to cherish his fond memories: his son, Damonte; mother, Janet Cain; father, Quinzel Atkinson; grandmother, Lora Drummond; great-grandmother, Sara Harvin, great-great aunts, Fannie Harvin and Viola Gibson; great-great uncle Clarence Atkinson; six uncles, Anthony Cain, James and Lamont Drummond, Tywayne Jackson, Robert Keene and Ronald Lomax-Bey; five aunts, Theresa Keene, Raychel Atkinson, Nancy Atkinson, Tameugene Lomax-Bey, and Unika Roberts; godmother, Zelda Evans; son's mother Diamonese Watson; his special friend who was like a brother, Morvin "Pooh" Jackson; a host of cousins, family and friends.
