

Kendra NiKeisha Parker

December 2, 1979 - February 29, 2012

Kendra N. Parker was born on December 2, 1979 in Baltimore, Maryland to Brenda Parker-King and the late Timothy C. Wonson. She was called home to be with the Lord after a lengthy illness on February 29, 2012.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She held various positions, but her favorite was the United States Post Office in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Keisha, as she was affectionately known to her family and friends, was a fun-loving and affectionate person who loved her family dearly, especially the kids who she would play with for hours. Keisha was a special person to many people.

Kendra leaves to mourn: her mother, Brenda Parker-King; six children, Erica, Kezia, Kawuan, Tylon, TyJuan and ShaMya; three brothers, Ronald, Rodney and Darnell Jr.; three sisters, Donyelle, Dondrea and Sadie; grandmother, Bertha Wonson; one grandchild, Eric K. Hunter; one special godsister, Tarsha Barnes; godmother, Cara Harvey; five aunts, Barbara, Robin, Patricia, Jacqueline and Mary; six uncles, Franklin, James, Alexander, Tyrone, Anthony and Keith; nine great-aunts, Elsie, Doris, Hattie, Eunice, Glenda, Paulette, Alma, Oletha and Etta; two great-uncles, Richard and Johnny; special friends, Richard Tates; devoted friends, Eric Hunter; and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
