January 15, 1986 - February 8, 2020

Kennet Moseley, affectionately called Kenni, was born at the Medical College of Virginia Hospital on January 15, 1986. She graduated from Hi-Land Christian Academy in 2004, where she was known as "Song Bird". At a young age, she was added to the Church of Christ in Richmond, Virginia.

Everyone saw her as a delight because she was happy and always smiling. Kennet enjoyed spending time with her children and nephew, Kamar, managing the family's singing group, the 3NS's, and cheering for her beloved Atlanta Falcons.

She is preceded in death by her father, Kenneth Moseley; sister, Sierra Fenner; grandparents, Isaiah Fenner, Sr. and Weseley and Earline Moseley, and uncle, Thomas Epps.

Kennet leaves behind, mother, Velma Fenner; two sons, Troy Hill, Jr. and Keon Moseley, one very special nephew, Kamar Fenner; sister, Kazyona Mosby; brother, Leif Lambert; grandmother, Helen Fenner; aunts, Valerie Fenner, Helen Fenner, and Debbie Burgess (Samuel), Margaret Moseley, Carolyn Epps Black, Earline Moseley, Karline Moseley-Brooks, Deborah Moseley, and Tracey Moseley Haskins; uncles, Gerald Fenner (Kim), Isaiah Fenner, Jr., Clarence Williams (Lucinda), and Gregory Fenner, Wesley Moseley, Jr. (Etta), Charles Epps (Blanche), Verner Moseley, and Clyde Moseley, Sr. (Wyketa), and host of other relatives and friends, among them devoted friends, Tiffany Burchette and Tarai Drake.

Being the loving and caring person she was, one of Kennet's last wishes was to save lives by being an organ donor. In recognition of his gift, the "Donate Life" flag at Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center was flown in her honor.

“ We had so many memories of Cuz... She would make you laugh by being so funny on her actions.... For instance, I made some of my homemade soup and Snow, Tarai and Cuz was unexpectedly at my house waiting for me to get home to get some. All three of them ate a bowl and I made bowl for them to go. The next day my daughter Tarai told me that she told her Aunt Helen that she had some and she didn't share it with NOBODY.. Rest In Heaven, my other Daughter whom truly will be missed.... 💕 and miss you, always.
