“ Dear Andoll Family: You have our deepest sympathy and love during this time of bereavement. We know that there is nothing that can ease your pain; however, we know that with the help of God and your faith in him, he will get you through this difficult period. Just know that time will ease your pain and prayer will make the pain bearable. You are in our prayers. We feel your pain and will help pray you through. Remember, the love of friends is always there.##imported-begin##Joseph and Ernestine Wilkins##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. I would like to share a word of comfort with you from the bible. At such difficult times Psalm 55:22 says, "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you." Yes he will comfort us, and see us through all trials. But even more than that, he lets us know that he has a loving purpose to end all sickness and death forever. Rev 21,4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Yes these former things will pass away, and the dead will be raised back to life. John 5:28,29 How wonderful and loving our God is. May you put your trust in his promises, and may your precious memories help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi Auntie Helen & rest of the Family I know that you would have received my condolences sent through mummy (auntie Olive) and Debbie. Today I was browsing through Uncle Boysie's programme and realised that there was a guestbook, so I decided that better late than never. It has been a very long time since I have seen and have missed you all. I would like to express my heartfelt condolences of the passing of Uncle Boysie, a very powerful and respected man in our family...and who to my knowledge was the last male of his generation. He would surely be missed by us in Trinidad sent on behalf of Denise Britton nee Barrett Toni-Re' Britton - my daughter Lets keep in touch you have my email address. Thanks##imported-begin##Denise Britton nee Barrett##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly informs us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". In addition, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort, hope and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
