

Kenneth R. Blount

August 2, 1944 - April 3, 2021

KENNETH RANDOLPH BLOUNT was born in 1944 to James and Merdis Blount. He served in the United States military and defended our country in the Vietnam War before later retiring from Lever Brothers.

Mr. Blount had an adventurous spirit and loved to travel, especially to sports games. His favorite team was the University of Maryland Terrapins.

Family was everything to him...

He was affectionately called Uncle Kenny or Pop-Pop.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his granddaughter, Essence Hall; great-grandchildren, Essence (II), Cailen and Ethan; nephew, Eric; nieces, Nakieta, Jacquelyn and Kelly; great-nieces, Morgan and Jordyn; along with a host of other relatives and friends. He will be sorely missed.

*Kenny and I got along well at work. He was a real person and enjoyed working with him. If there is anything you needed he was right there to help you.
He is with God now and he is at rest. He is going to be missed.*

“ I was wondering why I had not heard from Kenny. He use to email me and check my Facebook page. My husband and I worked with him for over 30years and I have fond memories. He even emailed me when he lost his daughter. On April 5, 2021 I lost my first born from a massive stroke. So please let me give you my Deepest Sympathy and my coworkers and I will keep his family in prayer. He will be missed.
