

Kenneth Eugene Davis Jr.

January 6, 1982 - November 29, 2011

Kenneth E. Davis, Jr., son of Kenneth E. Davis and Rosetta Squire, was born on January 6, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland. He tragically departed this life on November 29, 2011.

Kenneth received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System. With a desire to improve his career outlook, he attended North American Trade School for Diesel Mechanic. Upon graduation, he gained employment at Sparrows Point. Kenneth worked for the United States Coast Guard Yard for many years through various contracts. He was also employed as a cook at his cousin's business.

Kenneth, also known as "Kenny" and to some family members as "Juicy", was a fun-loving person. He made friends wherever he went. Kenneth was creative; he could write and draw.

Kenneth loved to cook, play basketball, watch sports and hang out with his cousins and family. More than anything, Kenneth loved his children.

To cherish his memory he leaves to mourn: two sons, Josiah and Hilkih Davis; one daughter, Heaven Davis; one sister, Wandrea Davis; four brothers, Devin Blue, Shaquille Davis, Tristian Davis, and Kenzel Davis; one grandfather, Frank Squire; and a host of aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ It's been 14 years since you moved on from this world, and it still doesn't get any easier. I look for pieces of you in everyone I meet, and I wish you were here to guide me through the things I'm unsure of though I know you're still with me. I love you so much.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
