

Kenneth Douglas Johnson

July 8, 1945 - July 27, 2003

Kenneth Douglas Johnson was born July 8, 1945 to the late Marie Forsyth Johnson and the late Pegan Johnson in Halifax County, North Carolina. After a lengthy illness, he went home to be with the Lord early Sunday morning July 27, 2003. He was educated in the public school system of North Carolina. As a young man, Kenneth moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he joined the New Lebanon Calvary Baptist Church. There, he served on the choir and usher board. In Baltimore, he met and married Wilhelmina Jackson and from this union two children were born. Most of Kenneth's working years was spent at Fox Chevrolet as an automobile technician. Hunting and fishing were Doug's passion. According to his wife he lived to catch, clean, and cook fish. In fact, Doug was a "good" cook. More than hunting, fishing, and cooking, Ken loved his family-especially his two granddaughters who were his heart. To cherish fond memories, Kenneth leaves: his beloved wife, Wilhelmina; daughters, Cheri and Lakeshia; granddaughters, Sachena and Anjanae; his sisters and (brothers-in-law), Corine (Edward Terry), Jerolyn Stewart, Donnie (Theodore Burns), Cleopatra (Calvert Milburn), Essie (James Walker), Doris (Steve Dean), Shirley Singleton and Lenora, Alberta, and Diane Johnson; brothers and (sisters-in-law), Edwin (Adell Johnson), Perry Johnson, Andrew (Marie Johnson); mother-in-law, Naomi Jackson; sister-in-law, Carrie Livingston, and a host of relatives and friends.
