“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death was never a part of God's purpose for mankind. He desires all to live in peace and happiness, that is why Jesus taught us to pray that God's will be done on earth, just as it is in heaven. God has not changed, according to Malachi 3,6, and he will see that his wonderful purpose is fulfilled. Isaiah 55,10,11. One day there will be no more people dying, but obedient people will be able to live eternally. Psalm 37,29 says, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Then all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5,28,29. Please find comfort in Jehovah's word the bible, because it contains the truth about the dead, and the hope God has set in place for them; the hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ. May you also find comfort when you reflect on your precious memories of Kenneth, memories that death can never erase.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
