

Kenneth B. Joyner Jr

March 25, 1969 - March 27, 2024

Kenneth entered this world on March 25, 1969 and departed on March 27, 2024. The son of Geraldine Dixon and the late Kenneth Joyner, Sr. He was a happy child called "Buck" by his childhood friends. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later earned his GED diploma. He accepted Christ at an early age, became a member of First Emmanuel Baptist Church and later fellowshiped with Great Dalton Baptist Church.

Kenneth was a rambunctious child, full of energy and adventure, so much so that he once tied a red towel around his neck and dived off the top bunk bed and landed flat on his face!! This prankish behavior never left him and he was known for his jokes, pranks and playful behavior.

As playful as he was, Kenny also had a strong work ethic. He began working at the age of 16 (Roland Park Nursing Home) as a custodian, then as a grocer with his father and grandfather, a security guard with his uncle and finally as a bar manager until his health began to fail him at the age of 36.

His passing leaves to mourn: Mother, Geraldine; Stepmother, Barbara; Sisters, Heidi (James), April (Joseph), Kenya, Kimika, Kimberly; Brothers, Walter (Paulette), Leonard, Kenard (Allegra), Dwayne; Aunts, Gigi, Annette; Uncles, Steven (Margaret), Seth (Fatima), Champ, Malcolm, David; Special Cousin, Micki (Marcus); Special Friends, Fay, Dion, Yolanda ... and a host of other friends and relatives.
