

Kenneth McLeod

September 16, 1945 - October 15, 2013

Kenneth McLeod was born 1945 to Sadie Smith and later adopted by Horace Smith in Lumberton, North Carolina. Kenny as we called him attended school in North Carolina and went on to become a Brick Mason. He learned under the tutelage of his father and mastered the craft. Working as a Mason allowed him to travel a lot which made him a journeyman. He spent a short time in Georgia where he first became a father.

He returned to North Carolina for a while before deciding to move on to New Jersey, Pennsylvania and then on to Baltimore while working in the Washington and DC area. After several traumatic experiences he met Josie Roberta Ware (Bert) and her son Anthony Dewayne Wallace(Troy). They quickly became the nurturing family that filled the void in his life. He decided to give his life to the Lord and with God's love he found reason to smile again.

He leaves to mourn Josie Ware and her son Tony, his children Kermit, Darrell, Tiffany and Claire, Sister: Sadie Jordan, Elizabeth McMurray, Linda Smith, Gwendolyn Smith, Gloria Smith, Mamie Singletary, Sandra Hodge, Pennie Smith and Cheryl Louis. Brother : Horace Smith, William Smith, Jimmy Smith and Odum Smith and a host of nieces and nephews and a special place in his heart for his godson and prayer partner.

“ To the family of Kenneth McLeod:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Our brother, Kenny as we called him was a special person to each of us and we will weep tears of sadness as we remember the joy he brought to our lives,
But there will still be that emptiness we will share. Even though Kenny will not be with us any more his spirit will remain forever. Our family will continue to ache but will never forget him.

We know that the Loss of our brother brings pain raw and real and we will continue to ask God for his blessings.

Kenneth, you will be missed by all and we love you.
