KENNETH BLAIR NICHOLS was born August 3, 1964, in Saginaw, Michigan, to Kirk and Delores (Dent) Nichols. He entered into eternal rest on Thursday, July 6, 2017.

He was known as Lil Blair by many of his family members and Kenny by most of his friends and co-workers. Kenneth completed his education at Edmondson High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Shortly thereafter he obtained his Electronics Certification at the Westside Skill Center and was later employed by Milton Electric in Columbia, Maryland. Kenneth was a very hard working man and in his lifetime was employed at various companies; L&M Produce-Jessup, Mercedes Benz-Glen Burnie, McCormick-

Hunt Valley, Under Armor-Baltimore, IDX Corporation-Columbia and RF Conversions-

Kenneth was gifted with many talents; DJ-ing to be one. In his younger years you could hear him mixing beats blocks away, especially Rob Base "It Takes Two". Also,

he was talented in carpentry, a skill he used to assist family and friends to complete projects.

Many called him the “Jack of all trades”.

Kenneth was unselfish and made every effort to put others first. He was a man of integrity, strength, humility, servitude and especially organization. Everything had its place and had to be in its place, most of which was his clothes. Kenneth loved to be well groomed head to toe, regardless of the occasion. He made the best of every situation.

In April, 1998, Kenneth accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior.

Kenneth leaves to mourn: two sons, Lavar and Ranard Nichols; one grandson, Noah

Nichols; his mother and father, Kirk and Delores Nichols; one sister, Tanya Nichols;

one niece, Akea Glover; one nephew, Dionte Freeman; a devoted friend Sarena Hines; a
