

Kenneth O. Scott

October 28, 1967 - January 9, 2009

KENNETH ORLANDO SCOTT, son of the late Raymond Lee Scott and Kathleen Scott, was born on October 28, 1967 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He departed this life on Friday, January 9, 2009. Kenneth received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High School, and two months after honorable discharge. After returning home from the Army he worked at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center for many years. Kenneth then decided to move to Albany, New York where he lived and worked for ten years. Kenneth would always come home for short visits with his family and friends; but on December 11, 2008 he decided to come home for good by with his mother. Kenneth was a lovable person and well liked by everyone. He made friends very easily with his happy smile. His laughter will be missed by all that knew him. Kenneth enjoyed watching sports, playing football, basketball and family gatherings. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Kathleen Scott; for aunts, Marie Stanley, Francis Scott, Margaret Johnson and Marguerite James (Aunt Mootney); and a host of many other relatives and friends.

“ Lost Ones...

*Broken spirits of lost fills the october air,
the steam of my breath,leads to no where...
The days cry and the months scream
I only feel the lost ones in my Dreams
No longer live;its only exsisting in memory
Blind Birds cherp,while flying in misery.
The live is still living,and the lost keeps on giving,I can grief all i want but time is limited.
This pain we feel means more than any lyric in any song,the days were good until you were gone.
They say death cant stop you,you have to move on
But your days were shorten and everything went Oh So Wrong....

“ I would like to send fellow feeling to the Scott's. Lossing a dear love one breaks the circle of life. The bible say that very soon in the near future no one will ever die again, Isa.25:8.I have lost love ones also and know the pain that comes however our heavenly father care so much about your all, 1 Peter 5:7. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Scott's family. The loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of Kenneth. I know also the pain of losing a son in death. My son was also born in 1967, and he passed away 12 years ago. Although the pain has eased some, it never goes away completely, and death is something none of us can ever get used to. The reason that is so is, because Jehovah didnot create us with death in view, but created us with eternal life in view. This pain and sorrow was never his purpose for us. So he promises at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. The ressurection is the sure hope for the dead, and even the prophets of old believed in this promise. Daniel 12:2 tells us, that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Also the Apostle Paul said at Acts 24;15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. All will be able to come to life again to show their love and devotion to Jehovah God and his Son, Jesus Christ; and they will be taught peace and love by our creator, because the bible speaks of new scrolls being opened, and the dead being judged by the things written in those scrolls. Rev 21:12. So all of us; young and old, rich and poor, will be persons taught by Jehovah, and if we respond to his wonderful teachings, then we will be granted everlasting life. Isiah 54:13. May the promise of the ressurection bring much peace to your hearts and comfort to your souls.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
