“ Dear Family
Akiraah pretty much summed it up well. Death is definitely one of the hardest things to deal with and its something that we originally weren't designed to deal with. Like she said there is hope in the Bible. (Rev. 21:3,4)

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

To the family of Baby Kenneth Jerome Rorie III:

Please accept my deepest sympathy. What words can actually be spoken to ease the pain of this loss; there are none. While death in general is difficult and the loss of a love one is devastating, the death of a child and especially your own is traumatic. In such case the only words that surpass all words spoken from any human would be the comforting words of the Almighty God Jehovah. He understands your pain and Ps. 34:18 states Jehovah God is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit He saves. Right now in the time we live death is truly a threat 1Cor 15:26 states that death is our enemy and because God never purposed humans to die (Gen2:15-17) He has promise according to bible prophecies He will put an end to death. Yes Rev 21:4 says death will be no more and Is 25:8 states death will be swallowed up forever. As for our love ones loss to death Jesus has been given the authority from his Father to resurrect the dead. John 5:28-29. In the book of Daniel 12:2 states those who are sleeping in the ground of dust will wake up to indefinitely lasting life. So even at this dark time in your life Jehovah has provided a hope and remember Rom 8:24 say hope that is seen is not hope...But if we hope for what we do not see we keep waiting for it with endurance. So your hope is to one day soon be re-united with baby Kenneth who is now resting in God's memory till the appointed time to wake up. Jehovah God's word will not return without results. Is 55:11. You can truly rely on these words because Heb 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. May the peace of God bring lasting comfort.

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
