

Kenneth Ray Stower

July 8, 1963 - November 5, 2013

KENNETH RAY STOWERS, son of the late Ray Stowers and Josephine Fields, was born on July 8, 1963 in Salisbury, North Carolina.

At the age of five Kenneth moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. Throughout the years Kenneth was very resourceful and always self employed. Kenneth made numerous friends wherever he went. To all of his family and friends he was known as “Caveman” or “Cavey.” He will be truly missed by all his family and friends.

Kenneth leaves to mourn: his devoted fiancée, Nancy Williams; his mother, Josephine Fields; sister, Angela D. Harris; four brothers, Corey Stowers-Tate, Sgt. Alvin Fields, Sgt. Melvin Fields and Sgt. Mark Fields; four sisters-in-law and one brother-in-law; six children, Larry, Tony, Nancy, Jamila, Samuel and lola; seventeen grandchildren, five aunts, two great-aunts, three uncles, a host of nieces, nephews; a goddaughter, Ronshay Branch; and a godmother/aunt, Sylvia.

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
