“ This is when Kenny and I went to the African American museum and they had this beautiful room with a nice mirror and great lighting we had to take advantage. Kenny and I were the type of friends that whatever you wanted/wanted to do consider it done it was going to happen. forever my lover. #stayfab

“ Kenny I will forever cherish our friendship and the memories we made together. Time spent laughing and talking about everything under the sun. You were always so full of love and light and there wasn't a person that you couldn't cheer up or put a smile on their face. You were one of my first real friends since 6th grade and whenever we saw each other in high school it was always full of love and excitement to see each other again. Sending lots of love and prayer to your family. I miss and love you Kenny, until we meet again.

“ I met Kenny back in 9th grade . He was so loud and full of life . His energy drew me to him. .We first met in English and we grew closer after running track together . Kenny was a brother to me . He'd always try to see the light in situations . And one thing about Kenny , he was going to make you laugh . I'm so happy to have experienced my time with him . I love him so much and i know he feels the same . Until next time my friend .

“ The Alderson Broaddus Campus Community where Kenny attended offers sympathy to you, his family and friends.. I am Assistant to the President and had the privilege of paying my respects to Kenny today during the walk through visitation. I'm only sorry that I missed being able to share in person what I now write here. Many of our students, former students, faculty, and staff remember Kenny fondly and are grieved by his passing. In fact, my daughter, a recent graduate of AB, knew Kenny and is deeply saddened by his loss. The AB family joins in prayer for you during this difficult time, asking that God will give you the comfort and strength you seek.

“ I met Kenny at Highland springs, 9th grade in English class. After a while we became frick and frack. He came out to the track team and ran hurdles with me so we got even closer through that interest. Kenny had an interest in horses and i shared a passion for turtles. if it wasn't for kenny i wouldn't have had my first turtle. Anything Kenny wanted to do, we did. Anything I wanted to do, we did. It was always positive vibes, fun, a lot of energy, and laughter. I love kenny and I know kenny loves me.

“ Ken lived his life being unapologetically himself. He brought a light with him wherever he went, if he was around you would be smiling and laughing the whole time. He carries a warm energy that makes you feel loved just by being in his presence. I remember him being in chapel every Thursday and I knew when I looked up at him I would feel a sense of peace. Ken inspired people without even trying. Ken inspired people simply because he wasn't afraid to be himself. This life will not be the same without you Ken. You are loved deeply and whole-heartedly by so many.

“ Kenny, I am going to miss you so much. Kenny was such a bright light that lit up every room he stepped in. He was someone who instantly made a bad day into a great one. Your energy, your spirit and contagious smile will forever be with us and live on. I am happy that Alderson Broaddus bonded us together and I am grateful God allowed me to experience you as a friend and little brother. I love you Kenny! Sending my condolences to his family and friends.

“ It is very hard to be a person that is loved by everyone. For this to happen, you have to be a person who's light shine so contagiously bright that one could not resist. To be completely honest Ken was and will live on as that person in all of our hearts. Everytime I saw him at AB he would stop what he was doing, greet me with a smile and wave, and instantly make your day better. I am glad that I was able to meet and attend school with him. People like Ken are hard to find I. My heart goes out to his family. I know he made you guys as happy as he made all of us.

“ He was one of most cheerful people I've ever met. There wasn't a day that he didn't illuminate the space he filled. Always friends with everyone, always loved by everyone. I only have memories of fun and laughter when I think of him. Praying for the Tunstall family during their time of grief. May you find peace in the knowledge that Kenny was adored by all, and will be missed by all.
