December 12, 1953 - December 26, 2001

KENT G. McDAVID, born on the 12th of December 1953 in Trinidad, West Indies, son of Bernard Carabello and Thersa McDavid. He was a loving and devoted husband to his wife Shirley and two sons Veuril and Alan McDavid. He received his education from Rancho Quenado Government School in Trinidad, where he excelled in sports especially Track and Field. As he grew older he moved to Valencia to live with his mom. He migrated from Trinidad to New York City in the early Seventies where he lived with his father and mother-in-law. He later moved to Baltimore where he met and fell in love with his wife Shirley of 25 years. Being the ambitious person he was he returned to school to further his education in welding at Arco Technical School. Upon completion he was a fulltime welder at L.R. Wilson & Sons. This gave him the experience he needed to branch off into other companies such as Amtrack and FMC. He was a member of St. Matthew's Church and also the Knights of Columbus. In his spare time he helped coach the little league soccer for Cardinal Shehan formerly known as St. Matthew's. He touched the lives of everyone that he met and will be missed dearly. He leaves to mourn; his wife Shirley and two sons Alan and Veuril McDavid, father Bernard Carrabello and Thersa McDavid, mother and father-in-Law Othelia and John Gomez, many brothers and sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends and relatives.
