

Keon Terrell White

September 2, 1980 - June 4, 2003

The Lord has added another great voice to His heavenly choir! Keon Terrell White was born September 2, 1980 to Haywood and Patricia White. On June 4, 2003, Keon was called home from his labor to reward. He was nurtured at the Bible Fellowship Chapel and later as an adult became a member of the Household of Faith Church. Keon graduated from Dunbar High School with full honors under the academic leadership of Dr. Joyce Jennings. He began further studies at Morgan State University where he was on the Deans List and later transferred to Howard University in Washington, D.C. where he soared to greater heights as a Theatre Arts major. Keon was currently in his junior year and had recently received a scholarship to attend the world renowned Oxford University in England. Keon had many great attributes of which his family is proud, but his greatest attribute was his love of Jesus Christ. Keon was a Good Samaritan at heart and was never too busy to stop and help someone. He served as an example to us all as he always looked for the good in a man and would reach out to help anyone in need. He never complained and always kept a smile on his face and a song in his heart. Left to celebrate Keon's life are his parents, Haywood and Patricia White, four brothers, Haywood IV, Darryl, Damon and Dorrell, one sister Jacqueline White, one sister-in-law, Tiffany Thorne, four aunts, one uncle, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I was there with Keon at the seen of the accident. I just wanted to let the family know that I prayed for him. Everyone there was praying for him. I didn't know him personally; however I thought of him often since the accident and I knew in my heart that he was a good guy and he was loved. I will continue to pray for the family for love, comfort and strength.##imported-begin##Shana Y. Johnson##imported-end##
