“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus Christ, bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C. “ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Kevin's family and friends. The untimely death of a loved one is painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. Continue to find comfort in the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
