

Kevin E. Baylor, Sr.

January 24, 1963 - January 1, 2018

Kevin E. Baylor was born to Donald and Fannie Baylor, who preceded him in death.

He was a great jokester, and he loved to make people laugh.

Kevin graduated from Lake Clifton High School, where he won many trophies for wrestling (he was the best). He was the first MSA Champion Wrestler.

Kevin was a terrific community helper; putting out the neighbor's trash, changing a tire or so, helping take groceries in someone's house, practically anything that he could help neighbors or anyone do, he would do it. He was a workaholic at Sophra and the Harford Road Tire Shop.

Kevin gave his life to Christ.

He leaves behind: two children, Kevin E. Baylor Jr. and Ashley Baylor; four grandchildren, Kevin E. Baylor III, Kaydiah, Karon and Jean-Bernard; two brothers, Darrell (Ricky) Thompson and Rodney Baylor; and other siblings whom he loved, Keke, Peanut and Button.

Kevin was very close to his Aunt Margaret, Aunt Nannie, Uncle Thomas b.k.a. "Pork Chop", Uncle Levy, Uncle Junie and Aunt Baby Sis. He also leaves behind a host of other uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and true friends.

The Oliver neighborhood, where he lived, will truly miss him. Kevin was truly loved by many!

RealTalk 101: "About KB. And Me." I've been listening to him trashtalk from JR. HS. To SHC... Whether it's yelling out of a car window or sneaking up behind me in a store as others who don't know assume he's bragging with his trashtalk... Well, Boys and Girls, gather around and toss another log in the fire place as uncle D tells you a little story about KB.... 1981Champion at 98lbs. ...Won the Russell Cup for the most tournament team points scored..."He scored 8 points with 4 pins"....And just as those who talked about Mohammed Ali boasting and bragging that he's the greatest ; FYI... It ain't bragging if you can back it up....Trust me,I've been wrestling and of the sport for 39 yrs. Kevin E. Baylor is the Greatest in Wrestling history to ever step on the mats as a Lake Clifton Wrestler... Your Coach and team mates will miss you.

Family sending my heart felt sympathy during this difficult time. Please find Peace in knowing that God is in control. Kevin has done everything here on this earth that God had as his assignment.

I will always cherish the wonderful memories that Kevin has left in our hearts. Talking bout FUNNYYYYY man that Kevin could make you laugh. We had the best times at Lake Clifton, in East Baltimore, in Pork Chops and even while having those big ole police dogs that he was training. Kevin will be truly missed but never forgotten by many.....

My Condolences,

Andrea Black
