

Kevin Stanley Brown Sr.

July 11, 1958 - June 19, 2019

Kevin Stanley Brown, Sr was born July 11, 1958 to Thomas and Vivian Brown. He was the seventh born of eight children. Kevin loved and cherished his family. He held a special place in his heart for his five sisters, two brothers, in laws, a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.

Kevin graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland class of 1978. After graduating Kevin attended Morgan State University. While at Morgan he developed an interest in natural science with a passion for physics in particular.

Kevin was employed at BGE (Brandon Shores) in a supervisory position. His final place of employment was at CareFirst BlueCross and BlueShield in the Owings Mills area where he also resided.

Kevin's passion in life extended beyond the classroom and his career choices, he also enjoyed acting as a pastime. He appeared in the television and film productions, Homicide: Life on the Street, The Wire, and Enemy of the State. Simply put, Kevin loved people. He was a big fan of recreation, with a love for Baseball and Horseracing. Kevin was an intent conversationalist and could engage in dialogue with anyone on any topic. Kevin's passion and love in life was most evidenced in his relationship with his son Kevin Brown Jr. The big smiles and unyielding laughter shared between them leaves a lifetime legacy of love.

Thank you, Lord for having shown us your Love, Mercy, and Grace through the Life of Kevin Brown Sr.

To God Be The Glory
