

Kevin Donnell Butcher

July 29, 1965 - February 10, 2005

Kevin Donnell Butcher, son of Jean Butcher and the late Edward N. Butcher, was born on July 29, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. He fell asleep in death on February 10, 2005. He received his education at Walbrook Senior High School. After high school he attended Franklin Pierce College for several years. Kevin was employed at Sparrow Point, until his untimely retirement. Kevin was very talented, he was skilled with cooking, drawing, creating things and playing basketball. Although Kevin was intimidating in height, he was a gentle giant who was devoted to his family. Affectionately known as Big Kev, he was admired as a devoted friend. Kevin had an undeniable love for both his mother and his son Tracy. He also opened his heart to two beautiful children, whom he loved as his own, Kiahna Moore and Amaud Willis-Dalton. He spent constant care for his mother in his last days and he was extremely interested in her welfare. Spending time with her, they not only developed an exceptionally close mother and son relationship but she became his best friend and confidante. He shared with her his feelings, wishes and hopes for his son's future. Kevin made a point to tell his son often, how proud he was of him and that he was a driving force in his life. He enjoyed spending time with his loved ones and put his heart into all relationships. There was nothing you could ask him to do that he would not try to do for you. Kevin leaves to mourn: his mother, whom he loved dearly and spent his last days caring for; son, Tracy; sister, Victoria Morton; and two brothers, Eugene and Edward Butcher; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Edward and his brother, Mario.

“ To the family, My family offers our deepest sympathy. We all know due to the condition of this world, death is an inevitability that confronts us all. Fortunately, we have the hope that Jehovah provides for us at Acts 24:15 and at John 5:28,29. May you also draw comfort from the words found at Isaiah 66:13. There Jehovah assures you that, "like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." Please know that you remain in our prayers.###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###
