“ Hey Kevin, it seems just like yesterday when we saw each other. For the past couple months, I saw you coming home from work everyday. We both saying hey to each other!. Never did I think I my last hi and bye would be so soon. I love you till the death of me. I will always remember the times me, you, Sharde and the fam shared. I'll miss hearing "What's Up Kee". I love you so much and wish I could get just 1 last hug from you. It's selfish of me wanting you to still be here, but I wouldn't want it any other way. Rest on, until we meet again. Love Kee

“ I have so many fond memories of Kevin. Kevin was most definitely a well raised and well mannered young man. Kevin always had a smile on his face. A well rounded athlete. We used to have so much fun on our road trips, with the AAU team. Patty, Joletta (RIP) Taylor always was there no matter what. Grandma Doris and Scotie (sp) would always attend local baseball and basketball games when they could. After the kids grew up and got out of our way everyone sort of went their own ways, but still love each other no matter which way we went. I have much love for this family and will truly always remember my Kevin. Love Joan Green
