

Kevin Andre' Hendy

May 16, 1977 - October 16, 2014

KeVIn anDre henDY, son of Egbert Hendy and Kathleen Hendy Black, grandson of the late Hamilton Reid, Mildred Billey, also Harry Bunbury and Doreen Hendy Bunbury, was born on May 16, 1977 in Montreal, Canada. He departed this life on October 16, 2014. Kevin completed his education at Walbrook High School in Baltimore, Maryland. He was a member of the Walbrook football team, a sport he loved very much. He was accepted at Morgan State University. Kevin worked in the Mayor's office for a short while, then continued his employment as manager and medicine technician of Julie's Assisted Living which was owned and operated by his mother, Kathleen Hendy Black.

Kevin had a passion for music like no other had. He mastered the keyboard at a very young age. He began playing music at the age of five, and was a member of the band The Evolution Sounds. Whenever he played the keyboard, it brought joy to your heart that made you want to hear more and more. He was soft-spoken and loved by everyone he came in contact with, he was a friend to everyone.

Kevin was a loving son, devoted brother who cared and was very concerned for his family. Kevin was accepted by everyone.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Kathleen; his dad, Egbert; his sister, Shakiera; aunt, Yvonne and others; uncle, Morrell and others; and a host of other relatives and friends. Kevin will be missed by all. May he rest in peace.
