

Kevin M Henry

May 22, 1980 - July 7, 2022

Kevin Michael Henry, affectionately known as "Kev" made his grand entrance into the world on May 22, 1980, in Trinidad & Tobago. He was born to parents Ricky Hutchinson and Cheryl-Ann Henry-Johnson. He departed this life of July 7, 2022, at the tender age of 42.

Kevin graduated from Harbor City High School and pursued his truest passion at the Baltimore International Culinary College, where he graduated as a chef. Later, Kevin worked at a multitude of locations, where he warmed the hearts, and stomachs of many with his natural gift of cooking. These venues included that University of Maryland, Johns Hopkins Bayview, Future Care, and lastly, The Hyatt Regency of Baltimore, where he remarried until his untimely passing.

Kevin was greatly admired and revered for his infectious, playful personality and his great sense of humor. And did I mention how amazing his cooking was? With true passion beaming from his body, he cooked so many dishes that showed his deeply rooted knowledge and admiration for his art. While being a professional chef, Kevin found a great deal of fulfillment in making dishes for his family and friends. Especially when it came time for him to cook for his mother and grandmother, he loved to cater to their taste buds with every dish that he prepared.

Kev truly enjoyed dancing and having a good time, even if that meant he had to be the life of the party! There was no dance floor that he was afraid to take over. He also loved playing video games and being the absolute best at them. While growing up and even well into adulthood, he could always be found engaging in playful gaming competitions with either his cousins, his brother, his close friends, or all of the above!

On most Saturday mornings you could find Kevin wandering the Waverly Farmers Market in search of fresh ingredients; being beyond committed to his craft! While the bounty of the market changed with the seasons, Kevin always returned home with his favorite breakfast: chorizo, black bean burrito, and steak quesadillas. Kevin made his home in the Abell section of Baltimore City with his chosen family, Scott Hanscom, and his beloved "Bundt cake" Isis, his cat.

In Kevin's spare time, he built different Gundam robots and tech models. Kev was very tech-savvy and LOVED Gundam. Throughout his life, he built at least 100 Gundam models ranging from fifty to over three hundred pieces. People enlisted his help often to build different household items because he loved the thrill of using his brain power to craft each build perfectly. Kev was also an AVID Pokemon raider, and comic and anime enthusiast.

Kevin will always be loved and missed deeply. The imprints he left on the hearts of his loved ones are permanent. He leaves to mourn his parents, Ricky Hutchinson, Cheryl-Ann Henry-Johnson, and Peter Johnson. His grandmother Venus Augustine and grandfather Fitzroy Holder. Nine siblings, Marvin, Annika, Tamara, Ayoola, Nzinga, Afeefah, Rukiya, Kern, and Jamali. His devoted friends, Scott Hanscom, Quinn Davis, Shannon Williams, April Nye, and Vince Cook. And in addition, as host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family and friends.
