

Kevin A. Hudson

December 21, 1959 - July 22, 2014

KEVIN ANTONIO HUDSON, SR., son of William Lee Hudson and Frances Hudson, was born on December 21, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. God saw fit to call Kevin to eternal rest on the early morning of July 22, 2014, after a lengthy illness, at his home in Cockeysville, Maryland.

Kevin received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended City College and participated in advanced placement studies at The Gilman School. "Chopper" (a nickname given by his mother) participated in various sports such as boxing, wrestling, football and martial arts. His favorite subject was "History" and he loved to read. Kevin had a vast interest in cooking as this was his greatest hobby. He was hired as a cook by Pocaro's Restaurant in Towson, Maryland, which later relocated to Little Italy. He became the restaurant's ultimate Chef and received numerous catering service opportunities.

Kevin later transitioned to a new career at Kennedy Krieger Institute in the facilities department, where he spent over twentyfive years exercising his second hobby as the "ultimate handy man." Kevin loved music, especially jazz, doo-wop, classic R&B, gospel and talk radio. Kevin was a serious hand-dancer; whenever a good song came on, you could count on good ole Kev to bust out with what was called the infamous "drop-toe cross-legged spin move" while dropping to his knee (the family knows that move).

Kevin had an extremely kind heart and relished opportunities to serve everyone in any capacity needed. He was a very genuine person who enjoyed laughter and good times. He was very fatherly to all young people; and his famous saying was, "I'm not trying to preach to you."

He leaves to mourn: his parents, Frances and William; his wife, Felicia; two daughters, Shontae S. Hudson-Turner (Clayton) and Maiyah Hudson; sons, Kevin Hudson Jr., Keith Hudson, James Diggs and Ashford Diggs; seven grandchildren, KeAnte, Kendal, Hayden, Essence, James Jr., Mason and Ah-Mauri; sister, Valerie; six brothers, William Jr., Jerome, Thomas, Jermaine, Terrence and Garfield; mother- and father-in-law, William and Yvonne; four sisters-in-law, Michon, Wanda, Denise and Tasha; goddaughter, Precious Love Taylor and godson, Andrew Morgan; his first wife and mother of his oldest children, Robin Hudson (who remained a devoted and dear friend); a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Kevin was way too young to be taken from this earth. God has another Angel! He was a good co-worke, a good father and I'm sure a great husband. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always. God Bless.

*Sincerely,
Jim Blankenship*

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
