

Kevin R. Joyner

October 7, 1970 - July 25, 2017

KEVIN RANDOLPH JOYNER entered this life on October 7, 1970, son of Kenneth B. Joyner, Sr. and F. Geraldine Dixon. He departed on July 25, 2017. Between these two dates he grew, he learned, he matured, he loved and he impacted the lives of many.

Kevin (aka Bo) enjoyed sports, was a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan, played dominoes with a zeal, and was known for his calm, laid-back attitude and wisdom.

Kevin was a man of commitment and love. He loved God and eagerly practiced his duties and services. He was planning and saving for his pilgrimage, and was well known thru-out his Islamic community. His second greatest passion was family. He was "The" family man, sharing love with parents, siblings, children, friends and co-workers-he did not just say "Beloved" -he showed the Love !!

His passing leaves many to remember him: his mother, Geraldine; daughters, Tanieah, Kache, Kasmir and Kailyn; fiancée, Kia; siblings, Leonard, Kenneth, Walter, Kenard, Kendra, Kenya, Kimeka, April and Heidi; special friends, Dion and Freeman; uncles, Steven and Champ; aunts, Jocelyn and Annette; and many, many more too numerous to name.

In his memory may we all show the love and respect to all as we should do as Kevin would do.

“ *My Dearest Brother,
I still can't believe you're gone. Although we didn't speak everyday, when we talked boy did we talk. Whenever you needed that female perspective you always called on me. You knew that I would give it to you straight--whether you wanted to hear it or not. When Pops passed away you were my go to, you held the family down. You were always the peacemaker and in a large family such as ours you were greatly needed and appreciated. The last time we spoke I teased and said how we were getting old..you just laughed and said, No you getting old--and so I shall--just without you :(I miss your smile your voice your laughter...and I will be missing you until we meet again big brother...Rest Easy*

“ Kevin, words are hard to come by, as a former co-worker it is hard to believe that you are no longer here with us and that the senseless acts of violence in this city has claimed another young black man. I did not find out about your passing until late Friday afternoon had I known earlier, I surely would have come to say good-bye. RIP
