“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family at this most difficult time. It is extremely hard to deal with the loss of a loved one, and I can imagine how you must feel. I too have lost many loved ones. What's comforting to me is the sure hope of the resurrection. Jesus gave his life so that we could have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10. One day soon the bible lets us know that there will be no more dying and no more crying, because God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, according to Rev 21,4. At that time all the graves will be emptied of their dead, because Daniel 12:2 lets us know that many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. May you be comforted and strengthened by the promises of our loving heavenly father, because his word never fails. Isaiah 55:11##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives the hope of causes of death such as sickness, accidents and crime being done away with. (See Isaiah 33:24; Isaiah 25:8 and Psalm 37:10,11) Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##
