“ I would like to offer my sympathy to Kevin Jones' family and friends. When death separates us from our loved ones, especially one so young, this can result in deep sorrow and pain. Even the perfect man Jesus "gave way to tears" when his friend Lazarus died. (John 11:35) That's why the Bible calls death an "enemy" but, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of a resurrection, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.- Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Kevin Jones. My heart goes out to you in your sorrow, because I can understand the pain you are feeling, because I also lost my only son at a young age. It is very difficult to deal with. What comforts me is knowing that one day I will be reunited with him in the resurrection. Many people asleep in death will one day hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. Jesus himself promises: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies will come to life." May happy days spent with Kevin bring joy to your hearts as you await the day of the resurrection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
