

Kevin Paxton

November 12, 1954 - September 23, 2010

KEVIN NEIL PAXTON, son of the late Herman Paxton and Florence Lorraine Fennell, was born on November 12, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life after a long illness on Thursday, September 23, 2010.

Kevin received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from the Maryland School for the blind. After completing his education, he worked for the Blind Industries of Maryland. This was his only job and he worked for them until he was diagnosed with myasthenia gravis in 1992.

Despite God's many challenges, Kevin was a model of courage and strength. Although he is predeceased by his stepfather Henry Fennell, he is survived by: his mother, Florence Fennell; and his three sisters, Margaret Anne Paxton, Frances Elizabeth Paxton and Vera Leigh Fennell; along with a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

“ I want to say that I'm sorry for the lost that was experienced because its evident that Kevin is most certainly missed. I haven't had the opportunity to meet Kevin, but the death of a love one is a pain that causes great sorrow, but I just wanted to leave a message of encouragement from God's Word, The Bible, and it's a promise that Jesus Christ gave at John 5:28,29 says: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. So theres a promise that Kevin will be brought back. Also at Job 14:13-15: it goes on to say, "O that in Sheol (hell) you would conceal me, That you would keep me secret until your anger turns back, That you would set a time limit for me and remember me! If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory labor I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You [God] will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." So with that a dying man prayed to God to die because of his suffering he thought was God's fault when it was actually God's enemy Satan, but he mention how God will have a yearning to bring him back, and at the same time God yearns to bring others back, Kevin included.
