

Kevin R. Connor

June 4, 1960 - June 16, 2002

Kevin Raynard Connor was born on June 4, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland to John and Barbara Connor. On Sunday, June 16, 2002, Kevin suddenly departed this life. Kevin graduated from Edmondson High School in 1978. Afterwards, Kevin began matriculating at UMBC. He majored in mathematics and mass communications. Kevin pledged and gained membership to the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, while at UMBC. In 1978, Kevin became employed at Maryland National Bank. Here, Kevin met Clara Cherry and they were joined in Holy Matrimony on June 26, 1987. From this blessed union, daughter – Jessica was born. Kevin also matriculated at the Broadcasting Institute of Maryland. He studied broadcasting and engineering. During this time, he served as an actor in a Katz Insurance commercial. In 1981, Kevin began his career with the Baltimore County Government. Here, Kevin progressed from the Office of Public Works, to the Office of Planning and Zoning, to the Office of Fair Practice. Kevin was the co-founder of the Phone Group Corporation. He was a board member of the Department of Social Services, a member of the Maryland Alumni Association and a devoted member of the New Psalmist Baptist Church. Kevin was also one of the originators and facilitators of the Baltimore County African American Cultural Festival. Kevin became affectionately known as the “go-to guy” by the Baltimore county network. Kevin was an avid sportsman. He enjoyed fishing, golf, football, basketball and baseball. Kevin was known for his secret bar-b-q sauce. He loved people – all people. He met no strangers. Kevin knew everyone - from the rich and famous to the everyday street sweeper. Kevin was extremely sociable and possessed a charm that would brighten anyone's day. Kevin was a great listener and communicator. He was a crucial part of the New Psalmist Baptist Church Communication Ministry. His responsibilities included cameraman and producer. Kevin led and trained the upcoming bloomers of the ministry. Kevin facilitated the implementation of the Empowering Disciples Television Broadcast Ministry at the New Psalmist Baptist Church. Kevin was a great husband and father. He loved his family dearly. Kevin will be missed by all who knew him. Left to cherish Kevin's memory are: his wife, Clara; his daughter, Jessica; his parents, John and Barbara Connor; his mother-in-law, Ruby Boulware, his father-in-law and wife, James and Fostine Jarman; his sisters, Karen Connor-Quamina and Darlene Connor; five brother-in-laws, Charles Quamina, Paul Cherry III, Kastedera Cherry, Calvin Cherry, and Donte Boulware; five sister-in-laws, Bernice Snyder, Linda Salisbury, Robin Cherry, Chrysenia Cherry, Kassedra Cherry; one aunt and uncle, Annette and Charles Mercer; two God-sons, Charles E. Young II and Andrew Braddy; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ To the Connor Family I just want to let you know that my thoughts and prayers are with you today and always; and to send you some inspiring words that help us get thru trying times in our lives. I can only hope that these words can touch your hearts and bring you some comfort and peace. Please feel free to call upon me if there is anything I can do for you. Lean On Me..... When the burden got so heavy; I could barely face the day. I felt His arms around me, as I gently heard Him say. "Lean on me When your have no strength to stand. When you feel you're going under, hold tighter to my hand. Lean on me When your heart begins to bleed. When you come to know, I'm all you have, then you'll find, I'm all you need." Continue to hold to God's comforting and loving hands. “ Mrs. Connor and Jessica, I am so shocked and terribly sorry to hear about your loss. I will never forget Mr. Connor's smile, his positive attitude, love of life, and his support of Woodbridge. More importantly, I will never forget his obvious love of his family and how proud he was of Jessica. He was a wonderful person who made this world a better place for so many. I pray for God to comfort you, and for His love to strengthen you. I am sure that your memories of your husband and father and the love he shared with you will in time ease your pain and bring you peace. You are in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you.##imported-begin##Peggy Etzel##imported-end##

“ Kevin was taken from this world so suddenly that it doesn't seem real that we will no longer see him in the back alley, frequently visiting his family. He was always smiling with a warm greeting. It seems that his time with us was too short. But God had a different plan that no one could possibly have known. He called home his son and told him, "Job well done. Come home where I have prepared a place for you." Be comforted in knowing that Kevin is happy and enjoying eternal life. He did not leave behind any enemies or needed to make any apologies to anyone. He was loved and respected by all who knew him. Not seeing him or hearing his voice will be your greatest challenge to overcome. When sadness attempts to consume you, pull out a memory within your heart and take comfort from it. Your memories are what keeps Kevin alive in your heart and in your thoughts always. The Connors and The Griffins are like family, having shared many years of good and bad times on Rokeby Road. Our hearts are heavy with grief. It goes without saying, that if there is any thing that we can do for you, please do not hesitate to ask.##imported-begin##The Griffin Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Clara & Jessica Our hearts are heavy and sorrowful because we no longer have Kevin to see and talk about the good old days and how much we need to get together. Seeing you at different functions was always a great reunion for us. Please know that you are constantly in our prayers and Kevin now watches over you both as a guardian angel. The days ahead may be gloomy and sad but God will lift your eyes, wipe away your tears and hold you close to him. The sun will shine again and joy along with good memories will carry you through the dark days ahead. Remember that God knows your needs and He grieves your loss also. Love you both.
