“ It hurts today like it was yesterday. I miss you so much. To look into little Kevin's face brings me so much joy but yet such pain. I love you. Thank you for a gift that no one will ever be able to take from me. Your son!!! I wish i could hear the things you're saying about the young man he's becoming. Sigh.....I'll see you again when my dreams become reality.

“ I can not go through Clifton park with out thinking about my brother Kevin. I miss him so much he was such unique person he did not care about what anyone thought about him he rode his own wave. I often think about how misunderstood he was and still I'm thankful for how you taught me with out even knowing how to just be myself. he taught me how to drive, shoot, ride a bike, several different ways to get everywhere. I am so grateful to have had a big brother like you.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

“ Dear family, I'm truly sorry that you lost your beloved Kevin. The harsh reality of death can be truly devastating, and so hard to come to terms with. Just knowing that we can't see our loved one anymore is so painful. I know, because Ive lost many loved ones, including my only son when he was 29. What comforts me is knowing that Jehovah God promises that there will be a ressurection for the dead, which was made possible by the ransom sacrifice of his Son, Christ Jesus. John 5:28,29 tells us that one day all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out to a ressurection of life." Jesus himself said, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." John 10,10 Remember this, dear family: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." John 3,16. May your family find comfort in God's promises of a happy future, and in the wonderful memories you have of Kevin.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express condolences to you all. Kevin was 26 years old. There is so much for young people to do as the bible says at Ecc. 12:1, please read. Imagine the happiness that will result when dead loved ones are resurrected to life. I am looking forward that time. May all the precious and cherish times shared with Kevin stay close to you all in the days to come. ##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
