“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Kevin. I'm sure that this was a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true When Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I would like to send fellow feeling to the family and friends in your recent lost. Imagine what life will be like when we will live forever not just 20 or 30 or 50 years, never dying. The bible gives so much uplifting thoughts on the conditions of the dead such as Job 14:14, Ps 145:16. May all the cherished memories of Kevin support you all on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. It is so unfair when a family loses a loved one in death, and it is so hard to come to grips with. They are a part of us, and we want them here with us. Jehovah God is the source of all life and he hates death. That is why he has promised that one day he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25,8 May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, because John 5:28,29 lets us know that by means of the resurrection all of those asleep in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." One day Kevin will open his eyes again. May the precious memories you have of him help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
